Hope Street Productions announces partnership with Integration Entertainment to represent the film “Runnin At Midnite”

Tucson, AZ/Los Angeles, CA: Hope Street Productions, a Tucson, AZ based production company, is proud to announce a partnership with Integration Entertainment of Los Angeles, California, to represent the critically acclaimed independent feature film, Runnin' At Midnite.

Runnin' at Midnite, written and directed by USC Film School graduate Pablo Toledo and produced by Hope Street Productions, tells the story of young men struggling to escape the tough Tucson streets through a midnight basketball league. The film's test screenings broke the all-time box office attendance record at the local independent theater Screening Room and is currently playing at various film festivals throughout the nation.

Writer-Director Pablo Toledo views this as an opportunity to share his vision with audiences worldwide. “Although the film is based in Tucson, Arizona, it has universal themes we can all relate to. I think audiences all over will relate to the characters and struggles of Runnin' At Midnite. Our partnership with Integration is a milestone in our efforts to reach those global audiences”.

Integration Entertainment and its principal owner, Amy Steuer, is dedicated to representing producers and specializes in securing distribution for independent features and other content. Additionally, Integration provides consulting services to facilitate deals with domestic and international theatrical, video/DVD, VOD and all forms of television end users.

Integration Entertainment has represented and brokered deals and consulted on films such as Nelly's first feature, Snipes (Columbia Tri-star for video/DVD and New Line for Television), Pras' Higher Ed, Ghetto Dawg (Urban Domain), Master P's Lockdown (Columbia Tri-Star), Suckerpunch and Urban Jungle (Artisan), the upcoming Scarface and E-40's Survival of the Illest, Lowrider Weekend (Spartan), Game Day (Blockbuster), The Killer Next Door (Trinity), Tha Westside (Image), as well as many others.
